DOUBLE-ENTRY BOOK-KEEPING CLASS,

Taught by EDWARD WINSOR, Lexington.

Opens Tuesday, October 20, 1891, And Continues Twenty Weeks.

To the Young Men and Young Ladies of Lexington and Lafayette County: Having had many solicitations from young men and young ladies, and from parents in Lexington, and also in other towns in the county, to teach Double-Entry Book Keeping to another class this winter, I have concluded to do so, and will and continue until Friday night. March 5th, 1892, a period of twenty weeks, or five calendar months.

Three nights in the week will be given to the work, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock p. m.

We will be prompt in opening and closing at the hours named. No school will be held during Caristmas week.

Instructions will be given in DOUBLE-ENTRY BOOK-KEEPING, all the forms of Notes, Drafts, Or ers, Bills, Receipts, Accounts, Bills of Exchange, Checks, Accounts Current, Bills of Sale, Negotiable Paper, and Non-Negotiable Paper, and Control of the Paper and Non-Negotiable Paper, Non-Negotiable Paper, Non-Negotiab endorsements thereon. These will be illustrated on the blackboard; each one taken up separately and explained, until all the class will have an opportunity to understand fully everything relating thereto. They will then be required to make deamboat to pass. The river was then the entries and write the forms on their books, as often as may be necessary for a full and intelligent comprehension of the rising, and the water covering the road-matter under consideration.
